

FINANCIAL PATHWAYS of the Piedmont

Everyone Deserves Financial Well-Being

Financial Pathways of the Piedmont Many area residents struggle with debt, job loss, or low wages. Some lack the financial know-how to solve common money problems. Our expert, certified financial counselors offer confidential, caring assistance.

We help individuals and families

- Avoid foreclosure and other financial crises
- Learn to budget and use credit wisely
- Resolve debt
- Set and meet Financial goals

We serve clients via classes in financial literacy; one-on-one counseling and coaching; place-based intervention, and outreach through the use of The Point, a mobile financial stability unit.

OUR CLIENTS, THE KEY PEOPLE

JOHN
Client

I enjoyed the session I had with the counselor and have improved my overall financial health.

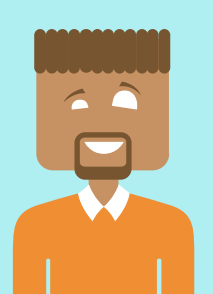

DIANNA
Client

I rate my counseling session/experience as great, highly informed, unbiased, and supportive; I already recommended (and will continue) to recommend Financial Pathways to others.

AMANDA
Client

For the first time in my life, I did not feel that I was one emergency away from losing everything!

PAUL
Client

I learned zip about budgeting and credit in school. It ought to be a required course. I got my financial education from Financial Pathways.
