Human Resource (HR) Consultant (part-time, contract position)

Financial Pathways of the Piedmont was established in Winston-Salem in 1972 as a non-profit educational organization to help families build wealth, achieve financial self-sufficiency, attain financial stability, and handle financial crises. Through its full range of services – including credit and housing counseling, financial and homebuyer education, and financial coaching – the agency strives to fulfill its mission of helping people build financial well-being.

Financial Pathways of the Piedmont seeks an experienced, highly-motivated HR Consultant to assume responsibility for the organization's human resource activities including:

- Providing HR oversight and consulting for the agency.
- Evaluating HR best practices as it relates to applicability at FPP.
- Providing advice and counsel on all matters directly or indirectly associated with Human Resources within FPP, including but not limited to: HR Generalist activities, strategic planning, employee relations, employment practices, employee discipline, employee communications, performance planning, compensation, salary administration, policy and practices, management practices, training and development, HRIS, benefit evaluation and implementation, etc.

The HR Consultant reports to the President and CEO and will interact closely with the Personnel Committee.

Education and Experience:

- Minimum of a Bachelor's degree. Master's degree preferred.
- Minimum of three years' successful work experience in HR consulting.

Qualified individuals should apply with a letter of application, resume, proposed contract fee, and the names of three references. (No contact will be made without prior approval of the candidate.) Financial Pathways of the Piedmont is an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer.
